

A Welcome to Our Visitors

We are honored and encouraged by your presence, and we ask God’s blessings upon you as we worship together. Please permit us to have a record of your visit. There are visitors cards on the table in the foyer and on the back of the pews. We ask that you complete one and drop it in the collection basket. Thank you.

Please allow us to share something about ourselves. We are a family of believers who love God because He first loved us. In response to His love, we have entrusted our lives to Him, offering God our hearts, our faith and our praise. He has transformed and empowered us to serve in His Kingdom. We would like to share His love with you.
(Acts 10:33)

Today our worship to God will be as He has taught us in His Word. We will celebrate the Lord’s Supper to remember the death of Jesus Christ, as the New Testament church did on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7). We will take up a collection for doing the Lord’s work. (1 Corinthians 16:2). Visitors are welcome to give but do not feel that it is necessary, as you are our guest. We will sing, pray, and spend time in God’s Word, just as the early church did.

Please join us as we worship together this morning.

May God bless you each day as you come to know Him better.

Walking in Someone Else’s Shoes

In 1993, I was serving in youth ministry in East Texas and seeking ways to encourage teenagers to grow in their faith in Christ. At that time, a nationwide campaign encouraged people to ask, “What would Jesus do?” Bracelets, shirts, and bumper stickers spread the reminder with the Letters, “WWJD.” I thought it was a little “gimmicky” and didn’t really buy into the hype. But later, I read “In His Steps” by Charles Sheldon. Published in 1896, Sheldon introduced the question, “What would Jesus Do” as a way to think through what it means to reflect the nature and character of Jesus in real-life situations. It wasn’t about wearing a slogan. It is about putting on the mind of Christ.

In Philippians 2:3-7, Paul writes, “Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus. who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men.” That’s spiritual health: thinking, serving, and loving like Jesus.

Imagine what would happen if, before every decision, we asked: “How would this affect someone else?” Walking in someone else’s shoes means more than sympathy, it’s empathy. It’s seeing the world from another perspective and responding with the humility of Christ.

In a culture obsessed with self-expression, self-advancement, and self-fulfillment, Jesus shows us the opposite way. He emptied Himself, took on the form of a servant, and gave His life for others. That mindset is the path to true greatness.

Our challenge is to put this into practice daily: at home, at work, and in the church. When we walk in someone else’s shoes, we look a little more like Jesus.

So ask yourself, “whose shoes do I need to step into this week so I can love them with the mind of Christ?” ~Bill
