

A Welcome to Our Visitors

We are honored and encouraged by your presence, and we ask God’s blessings upon you as we worship together. Please permit us to have a record of your visit. There are visitors cards on the table in the foyer and on the back of the pews. We ask that you complete one and drop it in the collection basket. Thank you.

Please allow us to share something about ourselves. We are a family of believers who love God because He first loved us. In response to His love, we have entrusted our lives to Him, offering God our hearts, our faith and our praise. He has transformed and empowered us to serve in His Kingdom. We would like to share His love with you.

(Acts 10:33)

Today our worship to God will be as He has taught us in His Word. We will celebrate the Lord’s Supper to remember the death of Jesus Christ, as the New Testament church did on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7). We will take up a collection for doing the Lord’s work. (1 Corinthians 16:2). Visitors are welcome to give but do not feel that it is necessary, as you are our guest. We will sing, pray, and spend time in God’s Word, just as the early church did.

Please join us as we worship together this morning.

May God bless you each day as you come to know Him better.

Faithful Things Matter

Father’s Day reminds us that some of the most important things in life are rarely flashy. A father’s steady presence, a grandfather’s prayers, a mentor’s encouraging word, or a simple habit of faith practiced year after year may not make headlines, but they shape lives in ways we often do not fully appreciate until much later.

Scripture frequently celebrates this kind of quiet faithfulness. Moses instructed Israel to teach God’s words to their children in the ordinary rhythms of life—when sitting at home, walking along the road, lying down, and getting up (Deuteronomy 6:6-7). Faith was never meant to be reserved for extraordinary moments. It grows in everyday conversations, regular worship, shared meals, and simple acts of love.

Many of us can point to people who invested in us without seeking recognition. Perhaps it was a father, grandfather, mother, teacher, elder, or friend. They may never have realized how much they influenced us, but God used their faithfulness to bear fruit.

That same opportunity is before us today. We may not always see immediate results, but seeds planted in love and watered with faith have a way of producing a harvest in God’s time.

This Father’s Day, let us give thanks for those who have walked faithfully before us and recommit ourselves to being people whose lives point others to Christ. Quiet faithfulness is never wasted.
