

A Welcome to Our Visitors

We are honored and encouraged by your presence, and we ask God’s blessings upon you as we worship together. Please permit us to have a record of your visit. There are visitors cards on the table in the foyer and on the back of the pews. We ask that you complete one and drop it in the collection basket. Thank you.

Please allow us to share something about ourselves. We are a family of believers who love God because He first loved us. In response to His love, we have entrusted our lives to Him, offering God our hearts, our faith and our praise. He has transformed and empowered us to serve in His Kingdom. We would like to share His love with you.
(Acts 10:33)

Today our worship to God will be as He has taught us in His Word. We will celebrate the Lord’s Supper to remember the death of Jesus Christ, as the New Testament church did on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7). We will take up a collection for doing the Lord’s work. (1 Corinthians 16:2). Visitors are welcome to give but do not feel that it is necessary, as you are our guest. We will sing, pray, and spend time in God’s Word, just as the early church did.

Please join us as we worship together this morning.

May God bless you each day as you come to know Him better.

Coming Home

There is something comforting about coming home after being away. Whether it is a vacation, a work trip, or a week at camp, there is a quiet joy in walking through your own front door, sleeping in your own bed, and seeing familiar faces again. Home reminds us that we belong.

I have often thought there is a similar joy in gathering with God's people. In Hebrews 10:25, we are encouraged not to neglect meeting together because our gatherings strengthen, encourage, and stir one another to love and good works. The New Testament never treats the gathered church as routine. It is always a gift.

This morning, several of us have returned from Sooner Youth Camp. We come home grateful for new friendships, meaningful conversations, and the opportunity to watch young people grow in their faith. We celebrate those who displayed Christlike hearts through quiet acts of service and encouragement. But one of the greatest gifts is simply being back together with our church family.

Every Sunday, we gather with people who have walked through very different weeks. Some come carrying joy. Others carry burdens no one else can see. Together we sing, pray, open God's Word, and gather around the Lord's Table. In these moments, God meets with His family, reminding us that none of us walks the journey of faith alone.

As we worship today, remember that your presence is a gift to someone else. Your encouragement, your prayers, your smile, and your worship strengthen the people around you. Every Sunday is a homecoming for the family of God, and every time we gather, God is shaping us to look more like Jesus.
