

A Welcome to Our Visitors

We are honored and encouraged by your presence, and we ask God’s blessings upon you as we worship together. Please permit us to have a record of your visit. There are visitors cards on the table in the foyer and on the back of the pews. We ask that you complete one and drop it in the collection basket. Thank you.

Please allow us to share something about ourselves. We are a family of believers who love God because He first loved us. In response to His love, we have entrusted our lives to Him, offering God our hearts, our faith and our praise. He has transformed and empowered us to serve in His Kingdom. We would like to share His love with you.
(Acts 10:33)

Today our worship to God will be as He has taught us in His Word. We will celebrate the Lord’s Supper to remember the death of Jesus Christ, as the New Testament church did on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7). We will take up a collection for doing the Lord’s work. (1 Corinthians 16:2). Visitors are welcome to give but do not feel that it is necessary, as you are our guest. We will sing, pray, and spend time in God’s Word, just as the early church did.

Please join us as we worship together this morning.

May God bless you each day as you come to know Him better.

Cheering for Faith

We eagerly celebrate the milestones in a child's life. We cheer for good grades, winning games, musical performances, birthdays, and accomplishments of every kind. Those moments deserve to be celebrated.

But every child also needs adults cheering for something even greater—their faith.

Jesus welcomed children, not because they had already become everything they should be, but because they belonged in His Kingdom. As a church family, we have the privilege of encouraging every step they take toward Christ. We rejoice when a child opens a Bible, offers a heartfelt prayer, shows kindness to a friend, serves someone in need, or chooses to follow Jesus. Those moments deserve our loudest encouragement.

One of the beautiful gifts of a church family is that no child walks that journey alone. Parents have a unique calling, but all of us have the opportunity to encourage the next generation with our prayers, our example, and our presence.

As JAM Camp approaches, let's do more than hope our children have a great time. Let's pray that every child knows we are a church family cheering them toward Jesus. There is no greater joy than helping the next generation learn to look like Jesus.
