

A Welcome to Our Visitors

We are honored and encouraged by your presence, and we ask God’s blessings upon you as we worship together. Please permit us to have a record of your visit. There are visitors cards on the table in the foyer and on the back of the pews. We ask that you complete one and drop it in the collection basket. Thank you.

Please allow us to share something about ourselves. We are a family of believers who love God because He first loved us. In response to His love, we have entrusted our lives to Him, offering God our hearts, our faith and our praise. He has transformed and empowered us to serve in His Kingdom. We would like to share His love with you.
(Acts 10:33)

Today our worship to God will be as He has taught us in His Word. We will celebrate the Lord’s Supper to remember the death of Jesus Christ, as the New Testament church did on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7). We will take up a collection for doing the Lord’s work. (1 Corinthians 16:2). Visitors are welcome to give but do not feel that it is necessary, as you are our guest. We will sing, pray, and spend time in God’s Word, just as the early church did.

Please join us as we worship together this morning.

May God bless you each day as you come to know Him better.

The Stories We Tell

Every family has stories they love to tell. Some make us laugh. Others remind us of difficult days we made it through together. The more we tell those stories, the more they shape who we are. They remind us what we value and what we never want to forget.

God's people have always been storytellers. Again and again, Scripture calls one generation to tell the next about the faithfulness of God. "One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts" (Psalm 145:4). We tell the stories because they help us remember where God has been at work.

The sermon this morning will take us on a journey through the summer. We'll hear about VBS, service opportunities, camps, devotionals, and many of the ways God has been at work in the lives of our children and teenagers. As you listen, don't just hear a recap of events. Listen for the fingerprints of God. Notice the ways He has been shaping hearts, building friendships, opening doors to serve, and helping people take another step toward Jesus.

When we tell the stories of God's faithfulness, we do more than remember the past. We strengthen one another for the future. Every story becomes another reminder that the same God who worked yesterday is still at work today.

As we worship together this Sunday, celebrate what God has done among us this summer. Then ask Him to help you recognize His fingerprints in your own life this week. The stories we tell teach us where to look for God.
