

A Welcome to Our Visitors

We are honored and encouraged by your presence, and we ask God’s blessings upon you as we worship together. Please permit us to have a record of your visit. There are visitors cards on the table in the foyer and on the back of the pews. We ask that you complete one and drop it in the collection basket. Thank you.

Please allow us to share something about ourselves. We are a family of believers who love God because He first loved us. In response to His love, we have entrusted our lives to Him, offering God our hearts, our faith and our praise. He has transformed and empowered us to serve in His Kingdom. We would like to share His love with you.
(Acts 10:33)

Today our worship to God will be as He has taught us in His Word. We will celebrate the Lord’s Supper to remember the death of Jesus Christ, as the New Testament church did on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7). We will take up a collection for doing the Lord’s work. (1 Corinthians 16:2). Visitors are welcome to give but do not feel that it is necessary, as you are our guest. We will sing, pray, and spend time in God’s Word, just as the early church did.

Please join us as we worship together this morning.

May God bless you each day as you come to know Him better.

Finding Our Rhythm

Every August has a way of finding its rhythm. Alarm clocks ring a little earlier. Calendars begin to fill. Summer vacations become memories, and familiar routines begin to return. Before long, the days begin to settle into a new pattern.

The rhythms we repeat become the life we live.

God has always cared about the rhythms of His people. In Deuteronomy 6, parents were encouraged to talk about God's Word while sitting at home, walking along the road, lying down, and getting up. Faith was never meant to be an occasional activity. It was meant to shape the ordinary moments of everyday life.

As this new season begins, it is worth asking what rhythms will shape us in the months ahead. Our schedules will quickly fill with school, work, activities, and responsibilities. Those things matter, but they should never crowd out the habits that keep us close to Christ. Worship, prayer, Scripture, serving others, and sharing life with God's people are not interruptions to life. They are the rhythms that help us live it well.

This week, choose one simple rhythm that will help you seek Christ first. It may be reading a few verses before the day begins, praying together as a family, or making worship and Bible class a joyful priority. Small, faithful habits often become the places where God does His deepest work. The rhythms we choose today help shape the people we become tomorrow.

August 30 - Promotion Sunday

Dear Spring Creek Church Family,
We want to start by saying thank you. Your support and encouragement over the last five years have left a deep impact on us. Having Spring Creek as a supporter was a blessing that helped us get through the ups and downs of mission work in Mexico.

We always deeply valued the times when we visited Tomball. We were always encouraged by your kindness and uplifting words. We will never forget your generosity and could not have done this without you.

As we are stepping into ministry in Alabama, we are grateful for you all and the way you supported us over the years. We would not be where we are without your love and support on this journey.

Sincerely,
Erik, Neva and Issac Bishop
