

A Welcome to Our Visitors

We are honored and encouraged by your presence, and we ask God’s blessings upon you as we worship together. Please permit us to have a record of your visit. There are visitors cards on the table in the foyer and on the back of the pews. We ask that you complete one and drop it in the collection basket. Thank you.

Please allow us to share something about ourselves. We are a family of believers who love God because He first loved us. In response to His love, we have entrusted our lives to Him, offering God our hearts, our faith and our praise. He has transformed and empowered us to serve in His Kingdom. We would like to share His love with you.
(Acts 10:33)

Today our worship to God will be as He has taught us in His Word. We will celebrate the Lord’s Supper to remember the death of Jesus Christ, as the New Testament church did on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7). We will take up a collection for doing the Lord’s work. (1 Corinthians 16:2). Visitors are welcome to give but do not feel that it is necessary, as you are our guest. We will sing, pray, and spend time in God’s Word, just as the early church did.
Please join us as we worship together this morning.

May God bless you each day as you come to know Him better.

Walking Through Open Doors

Some opportunities do not stay open forever. A conversation. A friendship. A season of life. When an opportunity comes, we have a choice. We can let it pass by, or we can step through it with faith. The apostle Peter encourages believers, "Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 3:18). Spiritual growth does not happen by accident. It happens as we respond to the opportunities God places before us. God often works through ordinary open doors. A conversation with a neighbor. An opportunity to serve. A moment to encourage someone who is struggling. A new habit that helps us spend time in His Word. A place where we can learn alongside other believers. None of these moments may seem extraordinary by themselves, but God delights in using ordinary opportunities to accomplish extraordinary work. As summer gives way to fall, many new opportunities are beginning to appear. New routines. New friendships. New Bible classes. They are more than calendar entries. They are invitations to continue growing in Christ together.

This week, ask God to help you recognize one open door He has placed before you. Then have the courage to walk through it. We rarely know where a faithful step will lead, but we can trust the One who opens the door.
